RETIRE ALONG WHOLE FRONT; ALLIES ADVANCE TEN MILES NORTH OF CHATEAU THIERRY

BULLETIN

PARIS, July 27. — The Germans today retreated along the whole front north of the Marne, the war office announces tonight. French and allied troops, pressing hard on the enemy rear guards have reached the line of Bruyeres-Villeneuve-Sur-Fere, Courmont, Passy-Grigny, Cuisles, LaNeuville and Chaumzy.

The allies have advanced more than fifteen kilometers (approximately ten miles) northeast of Chateau Thierry. The right bank of the Marne has been widely cleared of the enemy.

BULLETIN

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE AISNE - MARNE FRONT, July 27.—By the Associated Press. — The French and Americans have continued their rapid advance to the northeast and the forest of Fere was cleared of the enemy this afternoon. The allied forces are losing contact with the Germans.

WASHINGTON, July 27. — Harassed on the flanks by allied infantry and with advanced positions directly north of the Marne swept by allied artillery, the German army in the Soissons-Rheims salient has retreated to a new line of resistance, where another attempt will be made to meet the attack of the French, American, British and Italian troops.

Thus was the German withdrawal, reported in advices from Paris, viewed by military officials here tonight. Press despatches telling of the enemy's retreat were read by General March, chief of staff with great interest. So far as known no official dispatches had been received by the war department tonight on the latest move of the German high command.

The retirement of the enemy did not alter the widespread belief in official circles that the enemy still contemplates fighting it out in the region north of the Marne. Officials were not prepared to venture an opinion as to the location of this line. Severe rear guard actions it was assumed had been carried on by the enemy to cover the concentration along this line and the hasty throwing up of field entrenchments. It was not believed the line would be definitely located until it had been reached by the Franco-American advance guard in following up the retiring enemy.

Military wisdom, it was pointed out, dictated complete withdrawal from the salient between Soissons and Rheims. The internal situation in Germany and Austria it was suggested may have forced the German general staff to make only a partial retirement and to accept again the challenge of battle.

Secretary Baker said today that there was every sign that the enemy was being pressed and harassed by increasing forces without respite.

Enemy Heavy Guns Moved Far Back

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE AISNE-MARNE FRONT, July 27.—By the Associated Press. — The progress made by the Franco-American troops on the Aisne-Marne front is considered eminently satisfactory by the commanders, and the failure of the Germans to employ artillery extensively has tended to confirm the belief that their heavy guns on the greater part of the field have been moved far back, perhaps to a position which may mark a new line.

While steady pressure is being maintained on the arc forming the bottom of the sack the allies are determinedly hammering the flanks where von Boehm and von Eben have concentrated their armies, returning blow for blow in the hope that they can hold out until the main body of the Germans can be withdrawn with a minimum loss.

Aerial operations were again of less importance today because of the weather. It was cloudy all day and there were numerous showers making it impracticable to keep up the observation balloons which usually mark both lines. Occasionally both the allies and enemy attempted to use planes but these in most cases were forced to descend on account of the rain. There is a growing belief that the enemy will make no effort to stand on the Ardre river. Fere-en-Tardenois, and even Ville-en-Tardenois, directly east are already under heavy fire from the flanks and the south lines, making the roads as well as the temporary railways virtually useless for transport purposes. Those positions must be almost untenable.

The Germans are doing their utmost to hold the high ground southeast of Soissons for a continuation of their line either along the Ardre or farther north along the Vesle.

The flanks of the French, British and other armies are (Continued on Page Four)

"NO WORLD SERIES THIS YEAR"—JOHN TENER

President of National League Expressed Opinion Players Will Seek Other Employment Soon.

Salisbury Beach, Mass., July 27.—"I don't think any world's series will be played this year," said John K. Tener, president of the National Baseball League, discussing today Secretary of War Baker's decision that the "work or fight" rules would not apply to professional baseball players until September 1. Mr. Tener was at his summer home here.

Tener also expressed the opinion that the major leagues would not continue baseball after Sept. 1. The players affected by the rule he said, "will likely begin at once to seek a useful occupation before that date. Our league will fill in with such players as we can obtain but it is doubtful if we can go on after September 1. League action, however, may be necessary to determine this."

HERRMAN DISCUSSES BASEBALL SITUATION

CINCINNATI, O., July 27.—Discussing the baseball situation brought about by the ruling of the war department on the work or fight order, August Herrmann, chairman of the National Commission today said that so far as he knew the various clubs will simply play out their scheduled games to the appointed end and that it may not be necessary to make any new arrangements. "I think," said Mr. Herrmann, "that baseball should wind up with a big jollification on September 1st, and on the Second, Labor Day."

As to the World's Series the chances are that the games will be played but this question is to be decided at a meeting to be held three or four days hence, the chairman said.

WAR SUMMARY

News of Activities On Various Battle Fronts in Summarized Form By Associated Press.

The Germans are in retreat along the entire front north of the Marne. This part of the front in the Aisne-Marne salient is about twenty miles across and the advance of the French and allied troops on the arc constituting the bottom of the sack has averaged between two and three miles beyond the line officially reported a day or two ago.

This means that the German crown prince and his generals are extricating their troops from dangerous positions as best they may. Reports from French headquarters have indicated that the Germans were carrying out extensive preparations for the evacuation of the territory between the Marne and the Ourcq, and it is doubted that the allies will endeavor with all their resources, to drive in on the enemy flanks.

Bruyeres, which lies a little more than three miles to the northeast of Armentieres, is at one end of the new allied positions and Chaumzy southwest of Rheims wood, lies at the other. Here the new line unites with the old.

Chateau Thierry, which was once a pivotal point of the German advance in the recent offensive, is now ten miles or more to the south of the allied front. All this territory running northward from Chateau Thierry, as well as to the east and west, has been retaken largely by the French and American troops by fighting of the sternest nature during the last week.

The principal fighting of the last few days has taken place along the Oulchy-le-Chateau, Villenotte and the Bouilly sectors. At Villenotte the allies succeeded in pushing ahead slightly and near Bouilly the British on Thursday began an attack that promised well, but it was stopped and the British driven back slightly from their advanced positions.

The fighting at Oulchy-le-Chateau and to the southeast through the wooded country has been steady and the Germans have been compelled to give ground, but has been a slow process that the allies have carried on in turning the enemy out of this section and forcing them to withdraw toward Fere-en-Tardenois. The situation on the interior of the German salient must be uncomfortable for the enemy. Long ranges are sweeping nearly every part of the salient and this fire is doubly severe over that portion of the German position within range of the medium caliber cannon. A new German offensive against some other section of the line for the purpose of relieving the pressure on the crown prince's army north of the Marne is expected by some military experts. It appears to be the consensus of opinion that the German attack will be launched against the British fronts in Picardy or Flanders.

In Albania the French and Italian offensive has slowly advanced considerably, but still is making ground around the right wing of the Teutonic armies in Macedonia. They have not as yet reached a point where they can menace the Austrian and Bulgarian positions further east.

AGENTS INVESTIGATE VIREECK'S ACCOUNTS

Evidence Shows He Used Money Contributed By Pro-Germans for Improvement of Status of Enemy Aliens.

(By the Associated Press.) New York, July 27.—Evidence that George Sylvester Viereck whose claim to Americanism is being investigated obtained $100,000 for his own uses from pro-Germans who believed they were contributing to improve the status of enemy aliens, has been obtained from examination of Viereck's accounts and his bank accounts it was announced today at the office of Martin E. Lewis, state attorney general. About half this sum was alleged to be under the representation that the German war bonds and municipal securities. After America entered the war and Viereck changed the name of his publication The Fatherland to Viereck's Weekly his source of revenue, which was the German government, was cut off. To carry on his alleged German activities, it is charged by Alfred L. Becker, deputy attorney general, he employed agents to collect funds under the representation that the money was to be used to finance the agricultural and industrial labor relief work, which he said was organized by agents.

According to Mr. Becker, the evidence indicated that Viereck paid himself a salary of $700 monthly and that the labor organization placed $25,000 worth of advertising in Viereck's Weekly each week. In these two ways Mr. Becker declared, Viereck apparently obtained personal possession of virtually all the contributions. Transcripts of his bank account are said to show, he purchased thru Hugo Schmidt German war bonds and Berlin elevated and subway company bonds. It was Schmidt, now interned, who acted as agent for the German government in placing millions of dollars in American banks to the credit of former Ambassador von Bernstorff in connection with the Bolo Pasha case.

Incidentally, Mr. Becker declared, it has been discovered that when The Fatherland was launched, just after the European war began, Count von Bernstorff was the first contributor, placing $1,000 in Viereck's hands. Between that time and America's entry into the war the German government financed the weekly to the extent of $100,000 Mr. Becker said the evidence shows.

AMERICAN FIGHTING TROOPS ARE NOW ON THE ITALIAN FRONT

Appearance of Large Body of Men from the United States Occasions Greatest Satisfaction—Are Billeted with Italians.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY ON THE ITALIAN FRONT, July 27.—By the Associated Press. — American fighting troops are now on the Italian front. They began arriving this morning. They are being billeted with the Italians.

Heretofore the only combatant American troops were aviators, and the appearance of this large body of fighting men from the United States at the present moment has occasioned the greatest satisfaction.

Major General Eben Swift of the American military mission to Italy was the first to greet the newly arrived Americans. He had already made arrangements for their comfort. The Italians greeted them with enthusiasm and rejoiced at the splendid physical condition which the American soldiers showed. The Italians appeared greatly astonished when the overseas men immediately sought out a bathing place and then started several games of baseball.

SHIP MANUFACTORIES NEARING COMPLETION

(By the Associated Press.)

Washington, July 27.—America's great chain of ship manufacturing is approaching completion. There are now 118 fully equipped yards in the United States and 44 others partly complete, of which 23 are more than 75 per cent finished and only six less than 25 per cent ready to build tonnage. Many have been built from the ground up, while others have been extended and enlarged to such a degree that many of them amount almost to new yards.

Thirty-seven steel yards which the United States had when the war began have grown to 72. The old yards have been increased from 162 ways to 195 and more are being added. Eighty yards for building wooden ships now are in operation or nearing completion. The remainder of the total number of yards are for building concrete ships, a new industry developed by the war need.

Hog Island, the greatest of all ship yards, and one of the four government fabricating yards, is 90 per cent complete and will launch its first ship next month. Mrs. Woodrow Wilson acting as sponsor.

The 118 yards which are complete are distributed geographically as follows: Pacific Coast, 48; Atlantic Coast, 38; Great Lakes, 16; Gulf Coast, 16.

Italian troops are not worried over threats of German vengeance.

A German officer, captured on the Marne, said of American troops: "If all have the same temper the German cause is lost."

The Kaiser is sacrificing man power recklessly. Once crippled it is hard to replace.

German papers are now attempting to explain the presence of American troops on the fighting line. News of their coming has at last reached Berlin. They may expect the allies there at any time.

Schwab is endeavoring to stop all exportations of steel while the ship building industry is fully supplied. Ship building is one of the most important branches of war industry.

When Judge Landis pronounced the words: "Darn the Kaiser", a class of aliens seeking naturalization cheered. And so do a great many people.

GERMANY'S RECKLESS SACRIFICES.

Military critics have expressed surprise at the reckless sacrifices of German man power in covering the retirement before the Franco-American counter-attack on the Soissons-Rheims front. An explanation is found in political conditions in both Austria and Germany.

Prior to the launching of the last German drive, the politicians had "red up" all Teutonia on the promise that Paris was to fall. To permit the campaign to end without the attainment of this end, or something near it, will be the most disastrous to the morale of the civil population. To retreat without a desperate fight would mean demoralization at home, even tho it would save thousands of soldiers. It is another case of burning "cannon fodder" to save the political governments and keep the royal rulers on their tottering thrones.

There is another reason for the heavy sacrifices the Germans have been making. General Ludendorff has accumulated great quantities of munitions in the Soissons-Rheims pocket, having intended to use them on the resumption of the German drive. These munitions are about to fall into the hands of the Americans and French. To the Germans, they are more precious than the men who have been thrown between the supplies and the advancing allies. Until these supplies are out of danger, the Germans must keep up their resistance—must continue to die as mere impediments in the road over which the French and Americans are moving.

RIPPLING RHYMS

By Walt Mason

July's a month I don't admire,
It's hotter than a house afire.
It drives me walling to the shade,
To lap up tubs of lemonade.
While I twang a mournful lye,
July's a month I don't admire.
The sun is like a ball of brass;
It shrivels all the leaves and grass;
It burns my neck and peels my nose,
And multiplies my weary woes,
And makes me murmur and perspire;
July's a month I don't admire.
The cough to which I don't drag,
My form, when evening comes,
Is much too warm. And there I toss the long night thru,
And tear the sheets and groan and stew,
And kick the footboard from the bed,
And vainly wish that I were dead.
When morning comes I sadly rise,
And brush the cobwebs from my eyes,
And see the same old sun on deck,
Determined all the world to wreck.
The breeze is dry and lacking juice,
Twas tried before they turned it loose.
The birds flop round on wilted wings,
And not a blameworthy thing.
The hens are squawking here and there,
Disgusted that they cannot swear.
All nature has a parboiled look,
And steam is rising from the brook,
And half cooked fish climb out to get
A breath of air, already wet.
The men and women sadly go,
Viewless errands to and fro;
They view the hot and glaring sky
And speak blue words about July.
The landscape's like a widespread pyre;
July's a month I don't admire.

FRANKLIN MAN SELLS HOGS BY WHOLESALE

John Bull Shipped Thirteen Carloads in One Day—Received Check for $39,889.75—His Feeding Plan.

To send a single shipment of hogs to a St. Louis market and bring back a check for $39,889.75 is not a frequent accomplishment. However, this is the record made the past week by John J. Bull of the vicinity of Franklin. Incidentally Mr. Bull broke the record at the East St. Louis market for the largest shipment by any one man on a given date. This shipment consisted of 950 hogs, or 13 carloads, which Mr. Bull fed on his farm in the Hart's Prairie neighborhood, about eight miles southwest of Franklin.

About half of the hogs averaged 204 lbs., over 400 weighed about 235 lbs. each and the remainder were lighter. 406 of the hogs were purchased by the East Side Packing Co. in East St. Louis at $18.85 and 444 went to Morris & Co. at $18.60. The lighter hogs sold at a slightly lower price. Just about a year ago Mr. Bull marketed an equal number, at the shipment at that time did not run to so many dollars. But he made the record in the two years of shipping more than 1800 hogs and having only one crippled and one suffocated on the journey from his farm to the market. Those who are familiar with hog raising and shipping well know that this is an unusual record, for it is not an uncommon occurrence for several hogs in one carload to be suffocated on their journey to the market.

Kept Hogs Cool.

In shipping these hogs Mr. Bull and his assistants started from his home farm about 8 o'clock one night, and they did not reach Franklin until about 5 o'clock the following morning. Tanks of water were used in keeping the hogs cool. They were driven slowly and these facts accounted for the fine condition in which they reached Franklin and the St. Louis market. Mr. Bull has been a consistent feeder of hogs thru a number of years. For a considerable period he fed cattle, but abandoned this several years ago as he was not finding the cattle end of the business profitable. But hogs have always made him money and he now raises hogs without cattle. While he shipped this past week 950 head there still remain a considerable number of hogs on the farm and this year by no means measures up to his record so far as the number of hogs on feed is concerned. Last year and the year before he had at one time more than 1700 hogs on feed.

Buys All His Stock.

Mr. Bull does not raise hogs at all, as he prefers to buy them. He purchases hogs ranging in size from 75 to 125 lbs. and then gives them all the corn they will eat. When possible he runs them on clover pasture. He does not believe in other feed than corn, necessary and has never fed tankage or used any other kind of feed with the corn. His farm is one of 200 acres and he of course cannot raise enough grain for so many hogs and so is a large buyer of corn. He has still several cribs on his place and will feed a number of hogs for the fall market, but his large feeding is always done in the spring and early summer. Experience has shown him that the late fall prices have a tendency to recede and that the spring and summer market is usually of the ascending kind.

Mr. Bull feeds corn right on the ground, preferably in a pasture. He loads the corn in a manure spreader and in this way scatters it and saves one shovel-ful. He and his one assistant attend to the feeding of the hogs and the general farm work. As the result of keeping such a large number of animals on the farm the soil is in a high state of fertility and the crop records far surpass anything in the immediate locality. On a 40 acre tract of wheat last year Mr. Bull raised a crop which produced $106 an acre. This is land that he has had under less for a number of years on a cash basis.

Plain Equipment.

"There is nothing fine or fancy about my farm," said Mr. Bull yesterday, "and you would probably be disappointed if you saw it. I do not use self-feeders and I have no fine equipment. I do give my hogs all the corn they will eat and shade and pasture and plenty of water will do the rest. I do not vaccinate the hogs, preferring to take my chances with the cholera, and considering the years in which I have been engaged in the hog business, have had comparatively few losses. I have a big open fire place in my home and several stoves where I burn wood. I have big piles of wood ashes accessible to the hogs and this serves as a fine medicine for them."

"If hogs are well fed and kept under clean conditions they will usually remain healthy. One year, however, was hard hit by the cholera and I remember well of losing 74 hogs in one night, and in the period of a few weeks more than 400 of them died. That was at a time when cholera was very prevalent in the community. Hogs were not worth as much by many dollars that year by comparison with the present, and the hogs I lost then from disease, if alive today, would easily be worth more than $15,000."

It goes without saying that Mr. Bull is not only a hard worker but uses a great deal of business judgment in handling his large transactions. He ranks as one of the most successful and extensive feeders in this section of the state.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

Many subscribers to the Red Cross fund failed to pay the amounts due July 1. The second installment is due August 1. All subscribers are most urgently requested to make both payments at once at the Elliott State bank. The national organization has called for funds from the Morgan county chapter, which are not available because of failure of subscribers to act with promptness. The increased activity at the war front is making still heavier demand upon the Red Cross and subscribers can give no better aid than by immediately paying subscriptions due.

Executive Committee Morgan County Red Cross.

JACK DEMPSEY WINS IN FIRST ROUND

Knocks Out Fred Fulton With Right to Jaw After 23 Seconds Fighting.

Harison Park, Newark, N. J., July 27.—Jack Dempsey of Salt Lake City, rushing from his corner landed a right swing under Fred Fulton's heart, following up with a hook to the body in the first round of their scheduled eight round fight here today. Fulton seemed to be lost as to what to do against the sudden onslaught and Dempsey kept boring in and at close quarters Fulton's arms played wildly over Dempsey's head, Dempsey stepped back about a foot and quickly hooked his left to the head and crossed his right to the jaw sending Fulton down helplessly to the floor of the ring with his head hanging over the lower rope. Fulton tried to raise himself on his right arm but his head fell over the lower rope and he was counted out in this position. The official time of the actual fighting was 23 seconds. Fulton's weight was given at 205 pounds and Dempsey's at 188 pounds. Fulton did not land a blow on his opponent who confidently asserted before he went into the ring that he would knock out the big plasterer from Rochester, Minn., in short order.

We met him out upon the street He surely was the village pest He mentioned something about the hat Now he has flowers upon his breast.

The president might get better results if he would apply the work or fight order to members of congress and the senate.

While Mr. Hoover is urging swine increase of the four legged variety, he might also urge decrease of swine of the two legged variety. Suppression of the latter would help greatly in feeding the people of Europe.

Assisting Nature.
The village authorities are digging a cistern, 10x14, near the water tank, so as to be able to supply the town when the wind don't blow.—El Dara Correspondent in Barry Adage.

Chi Gamble, the Peoria Journalist, says a meat man in Tennessee went crazy trying to figure out how to get six hams from one hog. We knew a colored man once who could get eight wings and four backs out of a chicken. He never went crazy figuring it out, however.

The Giant Flower.
From the far fields of Picardy. Across the miles of land and sea, Borne on the flying winds along, I seem to hear a mighty song—A might song, a crash of song! It is the clear, stupendous cry Sent from the souls of men who die.

Thru all the thunders of the fray It pierces like an arrowy ray, Life's own eternal harmony, From death's red fields, in Picardy.

Out on the fields of Picardy The march of death goes royally; Thru highways of supreme despair With huddled forms tossed here and there.

The standards of immortal life Float proudly over waves of strife, Bearing the spirit's recompense—Where, standing to that high defense.

A living wall of destiny, Men hold the lines, in Picardy.

O sacred fields of Picardy, O dread tumultuous Calvary, Thru your incredible stress appears

A vision of the golden years When from this seed, in God's own hour, Shall spring at last the giant flower—

Rose of the world, serene and free Sown on the fields of Picardy. The red, scarred fields of Picardy.

Letters of Interest from Jacksonville Boys in the Country's Service.

FROM THE BATTLE FRONT.
Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Andrews have received the following letters from their son, Corporal Le. F. Andrews, who evidently is getting a very close view of the big war.

June 27, 1918.
Dear Mother and Dad:
Received twelve letters yesterday.

Make Your Kiddies Laugh

Children smile when they take Foley's Honey and Tar. It tastes good. It makes them feel good. It will turn a feverish, fretful, coughing child into a happily smiling one. Because—It puts a healing, soothing coating on a feverish, inflamed, tickling throat. It helps soothe and stuffy, wheezy breathing. It stops coughs quickly, and it wards off croup. It contains no opiates, does not upset a delicate stomach, and the last drop in the bottle is just as good as the first. Try it.

MARTIN BROS.

Ask Your Friend What He'll Take For His Super-Six

Ask him what price he'd want if he couldn't get another. Look into the re-sale value of Hudsons in general—any model—any year. Compare the prices asked with usual standards. Then you will appreciate why the Hudson owner counts his Super-Six as an investment. With growing scarcity—curtailed production—used Super-Six values are bound to soar even higher. Draw your own conclusions. You don't buy a car for its re-sale value. Nevertheless, it is a comforting assurance to feel that you have an automobile which stays young and holds its worth. If you want a Super-Six act promptly. Every reason is against delay. Place your order now even if you are anticipating your future requirements. That is the only way to avoid disappointment.

ing over the lines and the aircraft guns firing on them, and the American machines fight them. We see air battles all day long. The Huns mean business when they let a bomb drop and they sure dig up the dirt. It's no fooling for us any more, but when I get in my dug out with my steel helmet on and my gas mask by my side, let them fire; I have as good a chance as the next fellow.

The first time we were fired upon I was pretty weak, but it is not so bad now. I go down on the range and shoot when doing nothing. I can't get a sweater over here by writing for it, and don't need it anyway. I put on the sweater mother made me as soon as I hit France, and have not taken it off since, and will wear it as long as it hangs on me. I think more of the sweater mother made for me than anything I have.

I wish they would give every American over here a club and let them go after the Hun. The more I see the more I want to get a German and watch him die. I'll get one before I come home. We landed in France and did not see England at all. Have been all over France. If I don't get home it's all right, but I am coming home, if anyone else does. I don't forget that. If only two get thru I'll be one of them. Am feeling fine, need nothing, rations are good. The weather is cool, but fine, the last few days.

Your son, Fount.

Somewhere in France.
Dear Mother and Dad:
Just got back last night from a twenty-four hours' stay in the trenches. We got more mail just before we left, and I read my letters from home in the trenches with the shells flying over constantly. All letters of mine that should be here I have received, except one from Aunt George and one from Jackson's second letter. Received two of my sister's in one mail; all of yours and dad's. You all have some of mine by now. Received a letter from Aunt Betty, but not her first letter.

It doesn't do any good to write for a sweater, as nothing now can be sent across but mail for the soldiers. I have plenty of warm clothes, anyway. Am sorry I can't get a picture to send home. I intended to have some taken in the town we liked so well, when I wrote you of the fine house we were staying in, but we left there before we expected, and it is too late now. I think, as we pass more towns. All we see now have been ruined by shell fire and no one is in them but soldiers. The same is true of having our clothes washed, but I can do my own washing and have been doing it for some time. The clothes don't look nice and white when I wash them, but are clean, as I boil them ten or fifteen minutes.

Went down several days ago several miles and took a fine warm shower bath, which the English have for their men. We have many Englishmen with us, as we are in the English, and not the American army, but we will later join the American forces. I wish I knew how to describe the front and the everlasting flame of fire that sweeps over each line. The noise is something no one can describe; the many different kinds of shells used, and the song those big ones sing as they fly thru the air. Down in our quarters it's fine, forty feet under the ground, with steel supports above you and all boarded in with 2x6 of different lengths, just as the height of the rooms go; also propped up with cedar posts. All wood used is oak or ash or something very hard.

The Huns have not been dropping bombs for two nights. Suppose they will fly over tomorrow and do it up right, as it is the Fourth of July, and I promise you it will be the largest Fourth I ever spent. Am feeling fine and have plenty to eat. It has been so exciting and my eyes have opened so wide, and I have been frightened so many times that there is something that makes one like it, and keep waiting and expecting something to turn up. Dinner is just ready (I mean for us, as we eat before the company does, or afterward, if we wish). You see, they have to take good care of us. Must stop now and grab my mess kit.

Love to all, Fount.

Morgan Commended at Camp Taylor.

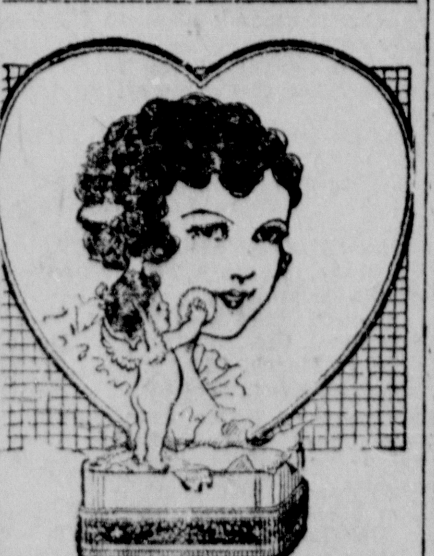

Elmer F. Whalen, who is one of the Morgan county soldiers recently sent to Camp Taylor because of the excellent condition in which the papers from this county reach these camp officers. Mr. Whalen, who is an experienced bookkeeper and stenographer, is in the company office. He is with the 60th Co., 15th Battalion, 159th Depot Brigade.

Mr. Whalen says that a big rush is on at the camp as 17,000 recruits have just been received. Two hundred of that number are to be added to the 60th Co. In order to take care of the new men there have been a large number of tents pitched in various parts of the camp. In his letter Mr. Whalen says:

"Most of the Morgan County boys have been transferred to other camps over the country. My transfer has not come as yet. I am in the Company office and have been ever since my first hour in camp."

"I want to tell you what a good showing the Morgan County boys made as compared with other recruits. You have heard of the good conduct on the train, but it isn't likely that you know much of the records of these men. Being in the office and working with the record, and being in a position to get the actual opinion of the commanding officer, I am able to tell you how much credit Morgan County deserves."

servies. For instance we had only three illiterate men in the 282 men that were sent down, a fraction over one per cent. While in some quotas from other counties I understand that 25 per centage has been very high. In the 282 twenty per cent were illiterate.

"Then in the matter of War Risk Insurance, we went well up in this. Every man took the limit, $10,000.00 with the exception of four men and these men took $5,000.00 each. 100% taking the Insurance offered by the government. It is unusual for us to take insurance under a stand that out of most every quota one or more men do not take out anything like this amount of insurance. I have heard the Commanding Officers remark time and again to the 'non-coms' what a good bunch we had, how well off of work the men take to the work and the drilling. Then again we proved to be a very healthy bunch, better than the average, only a few sick."

"The Local Board comes in for a share of approval. The splendid way in which they arranged the papers saved the office for much work and enabled the men to be examined much sooner. We finished the papers of the quota by 3 a. m. Sunday morning. Had it not been for the good work of the Morgan County Board it would have taken hours longer. 'If any wonder I am glad I am from Morgan County, Illinois.'"

"Your truly, Elmer F. Whalen."

Robert Wait at S. Carolina Camp. Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Wait have the following letter from their son, Robert Wait, who is now serving as mess sergeant in Co. F, Camp Jackson, South Carolina.

Sunday Eve, July 21, 1918.
Camp Jackson, S. C.
Dear Mother and Dad:
Intended to write you last night but I was so awfully tired, I just went to bed and got a good night's rest instead. Am cooking for 325 men with only one second cook until this afternoon. started day before yesterday at noon.

We let Conviv, the first cook on the other shift, go up to Greenville Camp to make an over Saturday and Sunday visit and Sunday evening they sent one hundred and eleven in on us extra and we will have them till the latter part of this week. It sure keeps us on the jump. Have to serve twice each meal time, one hour apart. If I had known about these extras Conviv sure would not have gotten away at all.

Had 135 lbs. pork tenderloin, 100 lbs. mashed potatoes, 36 cans corn (escaloped), 48 can peas (creamed), 15 gallons ice cream, 30 gallons iced coffee, 45 lbs. bread, about 4 gallons of pork cream gravy. I call that some dinner. Had braised beef (a whole fore quarter of same) and they ate it all for supper. Quite some cooking for two of us to do, as the other man we had today was only a helper. Have ten new men and seven of them had to be taught to be cooks, all coming to work some time tomorrow, split evenly on the two shifts.

This company was split into two companies yesterday and four more others organized or formed. I am assigned to Co. F as mess sergeant but will not open my own mess hall until about the first of the month. Will have at least 150 men in the company. We have about 1800 men in the motor school now and still coming until we have 2000. Quite some bunch of men for one department of this kind. About 75 of them will be instructors, of more or less ability to teach all the others. The extra men we are feeding is the main reason I did not get to go on the trip as the Lieutenant knew they were coming but did not know just when, and good cooks are scarce as hens' teeth.

Well I don't know but I ought to go to bed. It is about ten o'clock and I have to get up at four a. m. have breakfast all ready to put on the fire; 45 dozen eggs (scrambled), a big wash boiler of oat meal, about 100 lbs. of potatoes (for hash brown), coffee, bread and butter, and another wash boiler full of stewed prunes. I guess the boys won't starve. At least not till after breakfast anyway.

Got your letter all o. k. and I sure wished I could be home for that dinner today. Don't forget to send me the paper as I'll have time to look it over evenings anyway. Give my regards to every one and love and kisses to you both.

Robert.

James Daly Now at Indiana Camp. One of the Morgan county boys who left in June for Camp Taylor was James Daly. He was later transferred to Camp Beauregard, La., and subsequently sent from that camp to Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind., where he was placed in the engineers' corps. The following letters were recently received by the young man's mother:

Camp Beauregard, La., July 20, 1918.

Dear Mother:
I have a new home in Louisiana and it is extremely hot down here. We left Camp Taylor Tuesday morning and arrived here Thursday at 10 p. m. We traveled thru Kentucky, Tennessee, and Mississippi and part of Louisiana coming down here and saw a lot of the country. We saw acres of cotton growing and quite a good deal of corn, but the latter is not very good. Had a whole week's washing on Friday morning, and it was some job, but I was glad to have my clothes all clean once more.

This camp is nothing to compare with Camp Taylor. The Morgan county boys are scattered all over the camp. There are only ten or twelve in the company whom I know, but one of my friends is a corporal. As far as I know all the Morgan county boys were transferred from Camp Taylor. They are making room at Camp Taylor for 22,000 new men next week, and that is why we were transferred. I haven't much to write this time, so will close, hoping all are well at home.

Your son, James Daly.

Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind., July 21, 1918.

Dear Mother:
As I have just been moved again, I will write to let you know that I think I have a much better place now. I think I will like it fine here, as the boys are all so friendly. They act as if they had known me a hundred years. Only one of my old friends is here, Amel McDaniel, and he is also much pleased with the camp.

I will be in the engineers' company and am sure I will enjoy the work. We have plenty to eat and the food is wholesome and appetizing. They urge us to eat all we can, and you may be sure that we do some eating, too. I do not know where the other Morgan county boys are, and if you get the addresses of any of them be sure to let me know. I am feeling fine now and am enjoying life. Your son, James Daly.

FRANK READ RENAMED

100% FOR DEAF HEAD

A newspaper dispatch from Bismarck, North Dakota mentions the appointment of Frank Read as superintendent of the Dakota School for the Deaf at Devils Lake for a term of two years. He was appointed, with other heads of state institutions, by the state board of control. Mr. Read has been serving as superintendent of the school for a number of years past and has done work of a kind that has frequently called for commendation.

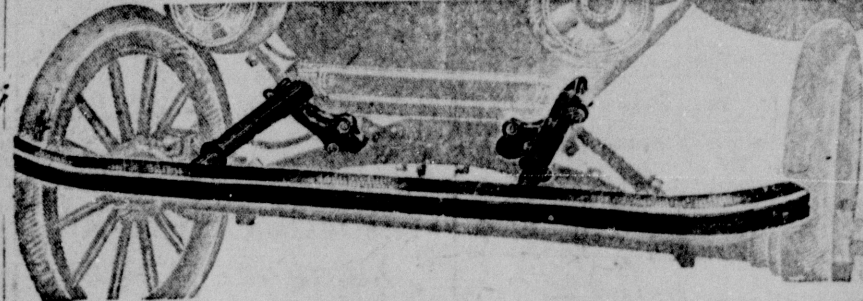

A recent copy of the Devils Lake Herald gave an account of the Chautauqua held in that city. One of the speakers was William J. Bryan, who made two addresses, one in the afternoon along patriotic lines and the other in the evening with "prohibition and woman's suffrage" as his theme. Miss Margaret Kathryn Read, daughter of Subt. Read, is doing reporting work for the Devils Lake Journal this summer and was assigned to cover the Bryan day events. During that day Mr. Bryan spent some time with Mr. Read and family in talking over Jacksonville reminiscences.

The Standard of Excellency

The proof of the pudding is in eating it, not in chewing the string. Therefore, the proof of plowing is to ask the user about the Emerson Gang or Sulky, the lightest draft, the easiest handled, and most durable plow on the market. Watch the team smile when hitched to an EMERSON.

—LIGHTEST DRAFT—

Note the distance from front wheel to rear wheel. All in a bunch, your load close to team and all the load carried on the wheels. Our lock for holding plow in the ground is closer to the front of the plow than on any other make, which assures that the plow will stay in the ground better, and the draft is always downward. We believe this the only correct method of locking and holding plow in the correct position. A perfect solid wheel boxing, oil tight, dust proof, running on a four to six inch longer bearing than any other make, and also a larger wheel. These above facts assure you light draft.

—EASIEST HANDLED—

Both hand levers on the right side and assisted by raising springs. By so placing the hand levers it is easy to get on or off plow. The foot lever for raising and lowering plow is on the left side, which also makes it extra convenient. The foot lever has more power than any other make, which allows the operator to force plow into the ground or raise it out with very livot points which eliminates the torsional feature until you have seen it operate.

—MOST DURABLE—

Wheel and wheel bearing practically indestructible. Double bail, proven by all manufacturers the most durable. Frame is one single piece of high carbon steel, connected to rear axle by extra strong malleable casting with extra long bearings. The land axle extends across the frame, attaching to both ends, with extra heavy bracing at front end. Bail brackets attached close to the under side of frame. Bails are short and farther apart at the pivot points which eliminates the torsional strain on the frame caused by most constructions. The plow bottom has an extra heavy steel frog and the only real successful quick-detachable share made. Extra case hardened soft center moldboard and share giving best scouring qualities. Also, perfectly running rolling coulter.

DEATHS

Simpson.

Mrs. Emma Belle Simpson died at the family home, 867 North Church street, at 3:55 o'clock Saturday morning. She had been an invalid for the past 26 months and for nearly eighteen months her condition had been regarded as critical. Wednesday her condition took a turn for the worse and she grew gradually weaker until the end came.

Emma Belle Wyatt was the daughter of William T. and Margaret Harney Wyatt, and was born west of this city December 19, 1858. She was united in marriage at Woodson, Ill., July 18, 1875, to Walter L. Simpson. Beside her husband, she is survived by the following children: Mrs. W. R. Barney, of Drumwright, Oklahoma; Miss Minnie Simpson, who lives at home; W. H. Simpson, of Ft. Smith, Ark., and Mrs. Davis W. Martin, of Paterson, N. J.

She also leaves four brothers, A. H. Wyatt, James Wyatt, Martin Wyatt, of this city, and Oscar Wyatt, of California.

Mrs. Simpson was a member of the Christian church. She was a woman of fine Christian character. During her long years of illness she bore her suffering with splendid Christian fortitude and something that would add to the pleasure of others.

For the past seventeen months Mrs. Simpson has been seriously ill. The funeral will be held at the residence Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

NEW BOOKS AT PUBLIC LIBRARY

ITALY.

Democracy, Patriotism, and Social Life in Italy Seen Through Books in the Public Library.

Three books in the Public Library written before the war, which give some insight into Italian life are particularly interesting now when it is rumored that the armies of the Central powers are going to make a big drive against the armies of the southern peninsula as a counter to reverse between the Marne and Alsace.

Historians agree that Italy has had more than her share of rich human experiences. Back in the time when "Rome was the whole world and all the world was Rome," this history begins. "A Roman Republic, A Roman Empire, the triumphs of her mediaeval cities when her merchant princes ruled the commerce of the world, the emancipation of human thought by the Renaissance, the production of the world's masterpieces in art, and that most dramatic of modern events the unification of Italy, all these great events lead up to the Italy of today.

The library has recently added a number of books on Italy and the war and such monumental works as Carnovale's "Why Italy Entered the Great War," are certainly worth study; but there are three earlier books in the library which have a charm of style in addition to distinctive value of content because not written in the heat of conflict. They give an excellent opportunity for understanding the people of Italy.

Tuscan Childhood.

Lisi Cipriani with delightful simplicity tells of her own early years in her book entitled "A Tuscan Childhood." From English nurses and German governesses the children in her family learned to speak four languages by the time they were seven years old, and they acquired a store of cosmopolitan ideas. In view of the present war and the ideals for which the various nations are fighting one comment in the books written 12 or 15 years ago is especially worth noting.

Speaking of the education of the children in her family she says "I think it fortunate for us that the English came first; for the Germans instruct but the English educate."

Quore.

Reading this story of a Tuscan childhood recalls Quore, a school boy's journal by Edmondo de Amicis. This little story gives a charming picture of school life in Italy. One of the father's letters to the boy contains an epitome of the Italian love of country.

Cavour.

Count Cavour, primarily a patriot and the great constructive statesman of modern Italy was beloved by the peasants on his estates and trusted by the common people generally. Even the King was always comfortable when Cavour was in power he trusted him too and believed in his power of success. Foreign statesmen ranked him high. The veteran Austrian statesman, Metternich is reported to have said, "There is only one diplomatist in Europe but unfortunately he is against us. It is M. de Cavour."

The life of this remarkable man and the unification of Italy is brilliantly recorded by Roscoe Thayer in his Life of Cavour. Two years before the war George Macaulay Trevelyan in reviewing this book said "Whereas Italy suffers today just in so far as she has failed to understand or imitate the spirit of Cavour, Germany's ills derive from too close an imitation of the great man who made her—his tariffs his junkerism, his dislike of the power of Parliament and his belief in the army, as the proper factor to dominate national life. Bismarck used a maximum and Cavour a minimum of force. Cavour thought force bad in itself and Bismarck thought it good in itself."

Beads were never before so popular. See the new line.

"WILL BE TIME OF DEARTH AFTER WAR"

Former German Imperial Chancellor Warns German Nation.

Amsterdam, July 27.—In an article quoted by the Berlin Socialist newspaper Vorwaerts Dr. George Michaelis, former German Imperial chancellor, warns the German nation that there will be a time of dearth after the war because of lack of shipping. "Let us not indulge in the idea that all distress will come to an end and happiness begin if our enemies indemnify us for our billions of war debt," he added. "Everything depends upon how we face the period of distress. The billions of the war of 1870 did as great harm."

RUSSIAN EMPEROR FAMILY SAFE

LONDON, July 27.—The family of Nicholas Romanoff, the former Russian emperor, is safe in a Siberian monastery at Abalak, according to a Central News despatch from Amsterdam. This town is on the Irish river and is a noted place of pilgrimage.

This report seems to dispose of the rumor that Grand Duke Alexis, the former emperor's son, had died of exposure following the execution of his father.

withstanding every effort of the Germans who appear to be making a most determined effort south of Soissons. The line remains much the same as it has been for the past two or three days, the only changes being slight advances. The battle line now totals approximately 50 miles, although there is not actual fighting along every mile of it and is a more broken one, made by the character of the enemy's withdrawal, especially on the south side.

The effect has been the presentation of a highly dangerous spongy front into which any part of the advancing allied line might fall. Were it not for the hunting down of the enemy and cleaning out of points of obstructions parts of the line could be far in advance of where they are.

The Germans have left officers who know how to maneuver skillfully partly deserted units so that at times it appears almost ironical to refer to their defense as a rear guard action. It is just that, however, altho by any standard except those established in this war, the almost half-daily and really minor encounters would be styled big battles.

Prisoners brought to one of the American division headquarters today were men of the Landwehr who confirmed former statements of prisoners that the armies engaged in the retirement are leaving only enough men to resist efforts to hurry them. Like other prisoners they professed weariness of the war and said this feeling was general, but supposed they must go on, since the men in high command so willed.

Report Quiet Day On Battle Front.

Berlin, July 27.—via London.—This also has been a quiet day on the battle front says the official communication from general headquarters this evening.

Hostile Artillery is Active On British Front.

London, July 27.—Field Marshal Haig's report from British headquarters in France says tonight:

"The hostile artillery has shown activity during the day on the northern position of the British front."

Inflict Sanginary Losses on the Enemy.

Vienna, July 27.—via London.—The official communication from the war office tonight reads:

"On the Tyrolean front storming operations in Val Arsa and the Concel valley inflicted sanginary losses on the enemy. In Albania our troops near Ardenica repulsed severe enemy counterattacks and captured, near Kalma, the crossing over the Semeni."

Fighting Activity Greatly Revived.

Berlin, July 27.—via London.—Fighting activity was greatly revived last night on the battle front in Flanders and especially on both sides of the river Scarpe.

The German war office announced today. In the Soissons-Rheims sector the statement added, there was a marked decrease in the violence of the battle.

The text of the statement reads: "Army group of Crown Prince Rupprecht: In the evening fighting activity was greatly revived. It increased during the night, especially on both sides of the river Scarpe, on the connection with the unsuccessful attacks of British infantry."

"Army group of the German crown prince: On the battle front between Soissons and Reims there was further marked decrease yesterday in the fighting activity. In the Champagne partial attacks launched by the French on both sides of the Perthes (four miles east of Soissons) were repulsed. There have been successful recon-notering thrusts in the Vosges and in the Sundgau."

Most of U. S. Prisoners Quartered in Rhine Cities.

(By the Associated Press.)

Geneva, July 27.—The majority of the Americans taken prisoner by the Germans are quartered in the Rhine cities of Darmstadt, Karlsruhe and Giessen, according to advices reaching the American branch of the international Red Cross here. Allied armies who bomb these cities are cheered by the Americans, the advices state.

GERMAN AMBASSADOR STARTS FOR MOSCOW

LONDON, July 27.—Dr. Helfferich, the new appointed German ambassador to Russia started for Moscow Friday, according to an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Amsterdam. In the same train went a battalion of German soldiers.

Dr. Helfferich, former vice-chancellor takes the place of Count Von Mirbach, who was assassinated in Moscow early in July.

REFUSE TO SEE COUNT

London, July 27.—Emperor William has refused to receive Count Luxemburg so that the former German minister to Argentina might justify himself, says an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Amsterdam. The count handed in his report on his mission to Argentina to the foreign office Thursday.

JENSEN WITH DRAFTED MEN

Bloomington, Ill., July 27.—Frank L. Jensen, Eureka College star football and baseball player and probably the best pitcher in the "Little Nineteen" whose home is in Bloomington, leaves August 1 with the local contingent of drafted men for Camp Wheeler.

Walter Lambrecht, former pitcher for the Bloomington Three Eye team, and who signed with Hutchinson, Kans., in the Western League, before it broke up, also will go in the same contingent from here.

Personal Property Increase

Over $2,000,000 Since 1917

County Assessor and Treasurer W. A. Masters, his office deputy, W. H. Self, and other assistants, have completed the compilation of personal property figures for the year 1918. These totals by comparison with 1917 show an increase in the value of personal property of more than $2,000,000. The total for 1917 was $10,226,127, by comparison with $12,362,319 in 1918. The principal increase in property value shown by the records seems to be in the farm products on hand. The grain and hay on farms this year had a valuation of $1,202,565 whereas last year the total was $305,845. The county also seems to be richer in the number of dogs, as there were 720 listed last year while this year 2,359 have owners who claim them. The comparative figures for the two years follow:

TRAINING SYSTEM FOR LAKE MERCHANT SEAMEN

Shipping Board Established System on Great Lakes Similar to That in Other American Waters.

Washington, July 27.—By an order tonight establishing a training system for merchant seamen on the Great Lakes similar to that established in other American waters and requiring companies comprised in the Lake Carriers' Association to take recruit seamen and firemen on board their vessels for practical experience, the shipping board declared it had met the last "legitimate grievance" specified in the strike resolution of the seamen's and firemen's unions.

In the view of union officials, however, Secretary Victor A. Olander, of the Seamen's Union, said the order of the board only made the situation worse, and asserted that the Lake Carriers' Association had "resorted to a shameful trick."

The modification by the shipping board of the nation's appeal for men to man its merchantships and in training recruits, Secretary Olander held, means that the Lake Carriers' Association will not have to train men.

MOONEY IS GRANTED REPRIEVE UNTIL DEC. 13

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 27.—Thomas J. Mooney, in "death row" at San Quentin prison under sentence to be hanged for murder in connection with a bomb explosion during a preparedness day parade in San Francisco in 1916, will not be executed Aug. 23 next as decreed by court. Governor William E. Stephens, in whose hands the fate of Mooney has rested since the state supreme court for the second time denied his motion for a new trial today announced he would be granted a reprieve until Dec. 13, 1918.

The governor said it would require all of his time between now and December 13 to examine the mass of court records and briefs in the case.

GREB MIDDLE-WEIGHT CHAMP OF ARMY

Navy Man Awarded Decision Over Eddie McGoorty at Fort Sheridan.

Chicago, July 27.—Harry Greb of the navy was awarded a decision on points over Eddie McGoorty of the National Army, at the end of their ten-round boxing bout at Fort Sheridan late this afternoon.

By virtue of the victory Greb becomes middle-weight champion of the army and navy.

Greb carried the battle to McGoorty all the way. He got away to a slow start and took several solid punches from his more experienced opponent before he hit his stride. In the third round, however, one of Greb's right hand swings closed McGoorty's left eye and from that time the outcome was never in doubt.

At the final bell Greb was apparently as fresh as when he started but McGoorty was plainly exhausted by his efforts in avoiding the navy fighters swings. Thirty five hundred people, the majority officers and enlisted men from the army and navy witnessed the bout. Greb is one of the boxing instructors at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station. McGoorty, a corporal in the national army is boxing instructor at Camp Grant, Rockford, Ill.

Would Like to Fight "After War"

Lawrence, Kans., July 27.—"I'd like to fight Dempsey," was the comment of Jess Willard, the heavy-weight champion, when he learned the outcome of the Dempsey-Fulton fight at Newark tonight.

"I am not surprised at the result," he continued, "for all you have to do is hit Fulton to have him down."

Willard declared his belief there would be no more major boxing events until after the war. "Just as soon as the war is over I am going to take on Dempsey, or any other claimant. I have not retired from the ring, and I have no intention of doing anything of the sort."

SHOEMEN IN CONVENTION.

H. B. Kamm, of the shoe firm of Mathis, Kamm & Shibe, has returned to the city after attending sessions of the Illinois Shoe Retailers' Association at Peoria. The shoe dealers went on record as favoring a consolidation of styles in shoes and were of the opinion that prices should be kept on the raised level. Instead of being raised further. Only black, white and two shades in brown shoes will be manufactured and button boots will not be made above a maximum height of six and one-half inches. Laced boots will not exceed eight inches in height. T. V. Hopper, of this city, is a member of the registration committee of the association.

RAIDS MADE SATURDAY ON LIQUOR SELLERS

Four Arrests Here and Three in Waverly — State's Attorney Says Evidence is Strong — Departments Worked Together on Cases.

A raid on liquor sellers was successfully executed in both Jacksonville and Waverly Saturday thru the combined efforts of State's Attorney Carl E. Robinson, the sheriff's office and the Jacksonville police department. Wilma Sheppard, Blanch Wilson, Sallie Jones Rice and Harrison Wilks were the Jacksonville people arrested and warrants are out for other offenders. At Waverly three were taken into custody, Ellen Groves, Goldie Medlock and Sam Thompson.

The State's Attorney began planning these raids several weeks ago after he had brought several special investigators into the county. He asked Sheriff Graff to detail two men for the work and also asked City Commissioner for two city policemen.

Strong Evidence Secured.

After good evidence had been secured in all the cases, Mr. Robinson filed the necessary information in the county court. Wilma Sheppard lives on North Main-street and Blanch Wilson on Washington street. An effort has been made before to detect these women in liquor selling but without success until within the recent weeks. Sallie Rice lives at her old quarters on North West street. Harrison Wilks, "Wabash" Wilks is a resident of East College street near the railroad. He is new in the list of bootleggers, altho authorities have been watching him for some time.

Wilks as a matter of fact has been in jail for several days as he was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Kimber without warrant after the officer had purchased and paid for liquor. One of the investigators got into conversation with Wilks and after making a plausible story that he and a friend were to start the next afternoon on an automobile trip, arranged for the purchase of several quarts of whiskey and a number of bottles of beer. The next day this investigator and Deputy Sheriff Kimber drove to the Wilks home, were admitted, the liquor handed over to them and payment made. When Wilks who is a colored man, found that he had sold the liquor to an officer, he almost turned white with chagrin.

Waverly People Taken.

Deputy Sheriffs Kimber and George Stice drove to Waverly Saturday afternoon to arrest Ellen Groves, Goldie Medlock and Sam Thompson. The last mentioned is a resident of an adjoining county and it is said that he frequently visits Waverly and brings in a supply of booze for sale.

The arrests of the Jacksonville people were made jointly by Capt. Elliott and the night police force and the deputy sheriffs already mentioned. The state's attorney said last night that he had evidence in all these cases which he accounted as very conclusive. He said further that in these and all other cases the evidence would later be handed over to federal authorities for separate prosecution. In all the work of investigation the police and sheriff's departments have joined with the state's attorney's office.

Following her visit in this city she will return to Chicago to resume her studies.

H. H. BANCROFT HEARD IN WHITE HALL ADDRESS

Spoke at Red Cross Meeting Given Under Auspices of I. O. O. F.—Will Make number of Addresses Pertaining to Centennial With-in Next Few Weeks.

Horace H. Bancroft, assistant Centennial director delivered the principal address at White Hall Saturday afternoon at a large Red Cross meeting held there. The meeting was held under the auspices of the I. O. O. F. and was a very successful affair. It is the purpose of this organization to raise three or four thousand dollars for the Red Cross work, and in connection with this meeting they offered many articles for sale by auction. Just before the auction was started four girls dressed as Red Cross nurses carried an American flag to the platform and an appeal was made to give to the Red Cross fund. Less than fifteen minutes over $175 was thrown upon the flag. The auction was a success.

Series of Engagements.
Great demand is made upon Mr. Bancroft to deliver messages the various patriotic and centennial celebrations held throughout the state. On Monday, July 29 he will go to Bement where he will deliver the principal address at the marking of several historical spots connected with the Lincoln-Douglas debate in Piatt county. This day will mark the sixtieth anniversary of the meeting of Lincoln and Douglas at a place between Bement and Monticello, as it was on July 29th, 1858 that these two men agreed to the seven debates, Lincoln mailing his acceptance to the debates in Monticello and Douglas receiving them while in Bement. He will speak in Bement at ten o'clock in the morning and at 2:30 in the afternoon in Monticello.

The celebration is held under the auspices of the Piatt County Historical Association. Mrs. Flo Jamison who is secretary of the Piatt County Association is well known in Jacksonville, where she visits her daughter, Mrs. M. J. Donahoe, 1004 South Main street. Mrs. Jamison was former national secretary of the Woman's Relief Corps. Many of the prominent men of Illinois are expected to be there for the celebration and who will deliver talks, among whom are Governor Frank Lowden, Ex-Governor Fifer and Henry W. Rathbone.

Flag Raising at Waverly.
On Thursday Mr. Bancroft will speak at the municipal flag raising in Waverly. This will be a celebration held in honor of the boys who have enlisted in the services of Uncle Sam.

The next day Mr. Bancroft will go to Rochelle, Ill., to speak at a big centennial celebration held there.

In speaking of the plans of the centennial celebration to be held in Springfield during the State Fair Mr. Bancroft stated that the commission had made arrangements to present the "Masque of Illinois." It will be given on August 26 in front of the grand theatre at the Fair grounds. This is a replica of the various events in the history of Illinois.

The Dr. Greene V. Black Monument

Statue Will Be Unveiled at Lincoln Park, Chicago, August 8th, By American Dental Association.

The American Dental Association will hold a convention in Chicago during the week beginning August 5. In connection with this convention, which will be attended by several thousand delegates from all parts of the state, the afternoon of Thursday, August 8, will be devoted to a session in honor of the late Dr. Green Vardiman Black. At this time the memorial statue will be unveiled in Lincoln park. The statue was made possible by the generous fund raised by the dental association, and the design by Mr. Hibbard, a well known sculptor, was chosen in a competitive contest. The statue, which is in granite and bronze, is reproduced in the accompanying picture.

The sculptors who entered the contest were men of wide fame, and the choice of Mr. Hibbard's design is indicative of the fact that it is a statue well worthy of Dr. Black's notable career and work.

Memorial Exhibit.

Another feature in connection with the convention will be the memorial exhibit which will be on view on the mezzanine floor of the Auditorium Hotel. There the early offices of Dr. Black will be reproduced, including his chair, engine, instruments which he used in every day work and those he used in experimental and scientific work. The general fixtures of the office, including the furniture, carpet and pictures, will also be reproduced.

In addition there will be an exhibit of the various manuscripts of the special articles he prepared thru the years for publication, together with copies of the various publications. There will also be on view the silver and gold plate and many other special tokens of appreciation which were given to Dr. Black by dentists on various occasions. Later on these manuscripts, mementoes and the office will constitute a permanent Black memorial museum at the new Northwestern Dental School. Plans for this school building have been perfected and the work of building would be under way but for the war time restrictions.

In the current issue of the American Dentist, Dr. Chester C. Clark has a comprehensive article on the "Dr. G. V. Black Memorial Exhibit," which he declares will be an important and interesting feature at the national dental association meeting. In this article Dr. Clark says:

Changing Times.

"One can imagine the difficult-ties which beset the path of this pioneer at the outset of his career, when crude instruments were the rule, and when the public had but a very limited understanding of what constitutes real no flight of imagination can one accurately contrast the limitations of those early instruments and appliances with the convenience and efficiency of the modern chairs, fountain aspirators, electric dental engines, lathes, root canal drivers, ionization instruments, special motors, switchboards and many other features, assembled together into a unit until it seems they must be capable of doing almost everything in dentistry except talk. The Black memorial exhibit at the forthcoming national convention, however, will make it easy for one to travel back in time with Dr. Black, to the time when he started practice and to observe the steady development and evolution of instruments and methods which came about during his six decades of practice, and to estimate the important part played by Dr. Black in originating and directing many of the developments in dentistry which occurred during his career."

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR PIKE COUNTY HERO

Gold Star Placed on Service Flag for Elzie H. Moore—Deceased Brother of Mrs. H. B. Allen of This County.

Impressive memorial services were held at Milton, Pike county, recently in honor of Elzie H. Moore, the first Pike county soldier to give up his life in this war. He was killed in action "somewhere in France", June 22. The deceased soldier was a brother of Mrs. H. B. Allen, a resident of route 6 in this county. The Milton Beacon had the following account of the service:

"An audience of people that tested the capacity of the Methodist church assembled to do honor to memory of Pike County's first soldier boy to make the supreme sacrifice. The church was beautifully decorated in the national colors mingled with cut flowers and potted plants. At the south end of the altar rail, 'Old Glory' draped in mourning stood at half mast, while immediately back of the pulpit hung the service flag of Mountzuma township, showing its forty seven blue stars.

"A number of Methodist women, together with the veterans of the G. A. R. and the boy scouts assembled at the home of Mrs. Mary McCullah, and escorted the relatives of our dear soldier boy to the church, and they entered the church to the strains of 'Nearer My God to Thee' played by Miss Thelma Staffer who then rendered a medley of patriotic airs, closing with 'America' in full chorus by the audience.

"Rev. Lotz, pastor of the M. E. church of Detroit delivered a most excellent address, paying a beautiful tribute to the memory of Elzie Hubert Moore, Pike county's first gold star, our boy who was killed in action somewhere in France, June 22. Dr. Doss then came forward and in a few well chosen remarks and in a manner peculiarly his own touched the hearts of everyone in that audience, advised the gold star in its proper place on the service flag, 'The Star Spangled Banner' was sung in full chorus, and in a short petition to the Throne of Grace, W. H. Butler dismissed the audience.

"The immediate relatives of the dead boy at this memorial service were: The father, Erasmus Moore, the aunt, Mrs. Mary McCullah, who has been a mother to Elzie, Archie V. Moore, and Mrs. Ray Vannatta of Alton, Mrs. Goldie Allen of Jacksonville, and Miss Freda More of this place. His brothers, Hardin of Jacksonville and Jesse, now at Camp Taylor, were unable to be present.

Harmony Lodge No. 3, A. F. & A. M. will hold a special meeting Monday evening at 7 o'clock.

THRESHING NOTES.

Threshing on the farm of Ernest G. Dewese in the vicinity of Joy Prairie this week brought the satisfactory return of 36 bushels to the acre. This year Mr. Dewese had only 20 acres but probably have a large amount for next season.

The day following the threshing worked in the field of Richard Leake on the Sharp farm. Part of the forty acres was in soft wheat and part in Turkey Red, and the average yield was about 30 bushels.

On the Frank Leach farm a few miles west of the city wheat was threshed recently and made the good record of something more than 35 bushels to the acre.

The past week an 80 acre wheat field was threshed on the Dobyns farm in the vicinity of Cicans. This wheat averaged between 36 and 37 bushels to the acre.

SOLDIERS WILL LEAVE FOR SERVICE THURSDAY

Seventy Five Going to Camp Taylor—Colored Men leave August 5th—Registration Figures are Compiled.

Final instructions have been received by the local board of Morgan county for the entrainment of 75 men who were deferred temporarily on agricultural grounds. These men will leave at 6:45 a. m. next Thursday, August 1, going via the Chicago and Alton to Camp Taylor. An early morning program has been arranged in their honor.

The men are to assemble at 6 a. m. on the lawn of Illinois Woman's college on East State street, where an address will be delivered by President Joseph R. Harker. The opening prayer will be by Rev. J. G. Kupler, pastor of Salem Lutheran church, and brief remarks will be made by Major C. E. McDougall on behalf of the G. A. R. veterans. At the close of the program, which promises to be one of patriotic interest, a group picture will be taken by Otto Spiehl and then the men will march to the Chicago & Alton station nearby. Members of the Liberty band, the Patriotic Drum Corps and at least a detachment from Co. C will take part in the march to the station. The chief marshal will be Major C. E. McDougall. As the hour is so early, members of the G. A. R., W. R. C. and the D. A. R. are not expected to take formal part in the program.

Colored Men go August 5th. The order for the entrainment of 54 colored soldiers has been received and the men are to leave at 6:05 a. m. Monday, August 5, on their journey to Rockford. The men have been summoned to appear before the local board Sunday afternoon, August 4, at 3 o'clock. The final arrangements for the departure ceremony have not yet been made. It is possible that a program will be given at a very early hour Monday morning, but it is more likely that the services will be on the preceding evening.

Classification Figures Compiled. Recently the office force at the local board office has been busy in the compilation of certain records desired by the provost marshal general. These figures gave the final classification of all registrants under the jurisdiction of the board, after action by both the district and the local board. All men originally placed in class 1 have been given a physical examination with the exception of eighteen who failed to appear, and others who were originally placed in class 1 and then after being unconditionally rejected have been transferred to class 5, Div. SERGEANT HERRING RECEIVES COMMISSION

Lieut. Harry R. Herring Assigned to Duty as Reclamation and Conservation Officer at Camp Bowie, Fort Worth, Tex.

Word has been received in the city that Sergeant Harry R. Herring has been commissioned a lieutenant in the quartermaster's corps, national army.

Lieutenant Herring enlisted in the quartermaster's corps at Chicago November 4, 1917, and was called to active duty at Camp Joseph E. Johnston, Jacksonville, Fla., December 18, 1917. The camp consisted at that time of about 25,000 soldiers. The greater part of the men have been transferred to different camps in the United States and many overseas.

Lieutenant Herring and Sergeant Ernest G. Stout enlisted together and were transferred to several different companies while at Camp Johnston, but managed to stick together for almost three months.

Herring then received orders to proceed to Camp Hicks, Tallahassee, Fla., and Stout was ordered overseas. This was not a pleasant parting for the boys. Tallahassee Field is an advanced field for training pilots and aerial gunners. The lieutenant has had many joy rides in the air and he has witnessed several fatal falls.

Telegraphic orders transfer Herring to Camp Bowie, Fort Worth, Texas, as reclamation and conservation officer. Camp Bowie consists of about 30,000 men.
